Kids Tag Art Winners Receive Awards

PORT CHARLOTTE, FL (April 1, 2014) – Kids Tag Art is a school fund raising project that inspires 5th grade art students to design their own specialty license plate, while at the same time learning about design elements and principles. The Charlotte County Tax Collector and staff will honor each of the winners at their schools. Art teachers will be able to use the proceeds of the tag sales for classroom supplies.

Vickie Potts, Charlotte County Tax Collector along with sponsors has organized this project for the third year. Tax Collectors Award-Nayla Blaich, Deep Creek Elementary; CLEF Award-Jenna Davids, Myakka River Elementary; Superintendent Award – Sha'Breece Bartley, Liberty Elementary; Florida Abstract & Security Title Corporation Award-Jon Wolvington, Vineland Elementary; and Ambitrans – Alle Graham, Myakka River Elementary. There are also two additional winners from each school who will receive Awards of Distinction: Cheyenne Scena and Ambika Jaikarran at Deep Creek; Makayla Stroud and Cierra Deel at East Elementary; Alina Nquyer and Jaelynne Hazeltine at Genesis Christian School; Ciara Finney and Katelyn Tinsley at Kingsway Elementary; Karina Dantin and Emma Barber at Liberty Elementary; Skylar Daniels and Angela Nieves at Meadow Park Elementary; Nataliya Troshuk and Austin Andrie at Myakka River Elementary; Elizabeth Gonzales and Anallely Rodriguez at Neil Armstrong Elementary; April Cardenas Rodriguez and Emily Miller at Peace River Elementary; Gemma Baldwin & Dylan Anthony at Sallie Jones Elementary; and Elianna Ward and Angela Ishkova at Vineland Elementary School.

Each Award of Distinction will be displayed on the Tax Collectors website and will be available for sale to the public. These tags are strictly art and can not be used as legal identification on the rear of the vehicle.

Congratulations to all the 2013-2014 Kids Tag Art honorees!
